Established upon my shut studying of this paintings it really is transparent to me that Seet has attained it as his phrases overflow with clean non secular discovery and a profound own knowing of non secular empowerment. I admire the best way he buildings his insights as dialectics during which a thesis and its anti-thesis unravel in an insightful synthesis. The dialectics of Seet force one to dig deeper and re-visit a strategy that Nietzsche describes as "breaking the previous tablets" with a purpose to carve a brand new and extra correct method of spirituality. Seet perspectives humanity as a chance to profit from the event of "fellow travelers" and within the epic existential trip he sheds new gentle to limn a steadfast direction towards a better spirituality which makes the adventure all worthwhile.
