Through Time and Wilderness by Doug Alderson

Doug Alderson

Whilst writer Doug Alderson used to be perusing a number of outdated relatives scrapbooks, one worn leather-bound quantity drew his interest—maps, photos, sketches, brochures and funny observations from his grandparents' 1939 "trip through the Golden West." Highlights incorporated Pike's Peak, the Painted Desert, Petrified Forest, Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon, Zion, Sequoia, Yosemite and Yellowstone. Alderson got down to retrace his grandparents' direction with a burning question: are the panoramic landscapes of the West, particularly these present in conscientiously secure nationwide parks, as correct and fascinating at the present time as they have been in 1939?
